True, Nazario could be emphasizing the sad and benignly tragic end to a romantic journey. I so agree with what you have written is that if we try to find and get ourselves through another, instead of our connection to a Higher Power, then we are going to come up empty, and absolutely are highly susceptible to False Selves, aka narcissists.

This may be printed on my headstone when I pass. I also finished the book wonder. A person may act crazy, say insane things, and commit mad acts, but the person themselves may not truly be derailed. I have learned that getting that location – and how – may not be as simple as you may think. It gave me a big pain in my heart. During this time, he tried every tactic to bring me. They are vampire spiders. has then only started with his customer. Spotting that gap and explaining how your book fits into it is your job.
