Ate here several times during our holiday and would happily recommend. Cycling, walking, canoeing, white-water rafting, flying, parachuting and ballooning are just some of the offerings for any level of adrenalin junky. Seaton Spreyton. Clean toilets lovely cafe and shop. I had everything we needed. Especially great fun at low tide for a water loving Labrador. The cottage was very cold the first evening and the wall heater was blowing out cold air which didn't help. This page falls under the scope of the Anniversary Update Project. We were lucky with the weather and on a clear, sunny day - it is quite magical. Lisa C.
