Both stories are gripping, one focusing more on explosions and action whilst the other centres more on the emotional biting side of death and destruction. In some ways this book is better than the majority of zombie books that have been published recently. Only registered users can write reviews. Both stories are gripping, one focusing more on explosions and action whilst At times, Mr. Jonathan Fisher is an average man living in Minnesota whose very sanity is tested when everything about his normal life is ripped away in an instant.
