Rather than deter them, this near-tragedy emboldened the fledgling gang to continue with their efforts in being casual hooligans. In the capital of the Netherlands the Hibs mob were soon on the prowl looking for the Rangers fans and as well as dishing out beatings the CCS wrecked a bar and one Rangers fan jumped into a filthy detritus filled canal rather than suffer at the hands of the revenge seeking Hibs mob. Acquaintances had been made with hooligans from the Newcastle Bender Squad and in August a couple of Hibs boys went with them to the Leicester City away game and were involved in the clashes between Newcastle Gremlins and the Leicester Baby Squad. Herecalls:"Intheprisoncellatnightyou'dthink'whydidIdoit? However the Hibs mob duly exited the train via the windows onto the track, left the station and then returned to catch the train to Sunderland in time with their Oldham allies. The Hibs mob made their way to Glasgow and as on the previous occasion they met up with the ASC on George Square and agreed to an alliance for the day.

Their plan was to enter the ground and try to launch a surprise attack on the ASC Square. Learn more about Amazon Prime.
