Isaiah This also cometh forth from the LORD of hosts, which is wonderful in counsel, and excellent in working. Because other parts of the Bible say that God is pele, is wonderful, there is no doubt that when Isaiah calls this promised Child pele he means to say that he was divine, that this would be God Himself coming in the form of a child. Romans He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?

alternate meaning in Hebrew leaves room for a double fulfillment, one as a regular sign for king Ahaz, plus a deeper meaning relative to the Messiah. He will do for others what they cannot do for themselves to bring deliverance.
