If a redetermination packet, other than a Form HSR, has been mailed and the recipient or authorized representative AR has not responded, the eligibility staff may contact the recipient or AR to determine why the packet was not returned prior to denial, however, this is not a requirement. Exactly where are your contact details though? The eligibility specialist must not work on or review an ongoing case nor assist an applicant or recipient to receive benefits if the applicant or recipient is a relative by blood or marriageroommate, dating companion, supervisor or someone under the specialist's supervision.
